A close-up photograph of a woman's torso and arms, holding a large, intricate bouquet of flowers. The bouquet features a mix of white and cream-colored roses, a large brown chrysanthemum, and various greenery and dried floral elements. The woman is wearing a white lace-trimmed sleeveless top. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green and yellow, suggesting an outdoor setting. A semi-transparent white rectangular box is overlaid on the center of the image, containing text.

This document shows the pricing options for wedding videography services provided by Ross Wooten (aka Wooten Wedding Films). I offer both a shorter Wedding Highlight, perfect for sharing, and a longer Wedding Film with more complete moments from the day.

While there are set options for pricing, each wedding is different and I would love to discuss customizing your package to best fit your wedding day.

ABOUT

ROSS WOOTEN

Hello there! I'm Ross Wooten, & I've had the incredible privilege of being in the wedding industry for over a decade now. Throughout my journey as a wedding filmmaker, I've had the honor of capturing some of life's most precious moments for countless couples.

Over the past ten years, I've honed my skills & developed a deep passion for storytelling through the lens. From intimate backyards to grand celebrations, I've strived to capture the essence of each couple I've had the pleasure to work with. The ability to artistically weave together visuals, emotions, & music to create timeless films is something that never ceases to inspire me.

With each wedding I film, I aim to create a lasting legacy that couples can cherish for a lifetime. Through cinematography, I aim to tell stories that evoke emotions & transport couples back to the very moment they said "I do." It's an honor to contribute to the beginning of their journey as they step into a new chapter of their lives together.

Beyond the camera & editing suite, I'm also a proud husband to an incredible wife & a doting father to an amazing daughter. These two wonderful individuals are my pillars of support, offering unwavering encouragement as I chase my dreams and capture the dreams of others on film.

My family serves as a constant reminder of the power of love, which is why I'm so dedicated to my craft. Being married myself, I understand the significance of the wedding day & the memories that come with it firsthand. This understanding fuels my commitment to capturing every fleeting glance, every tear, & every burst of laughter – all the intricate moments that make up the tapestry of a couple's special day.

Thank you for considering me to be a part of your special day. I look forward to continuing this incredible journey, capturing love stories, & creating cinematic memories that will be cherished for generations to come.
